Students Find New Horizons in 1980

The 1979-80 school year at Carterville High School was a year packed with many new horizons. As we entered a new decade, our school underwent many changes which affected the lives of the students and faculty members.

One of the changes at CCHS was the installation of a new floor in the large gymnasium. The previous floor had sustained water damage during the 1978-79 school year. The new floor was not usable until its December 5, 1979, completion.

Carterville High School established its own Building Trades program in 1979. Under the supervision of Mr. Marrs, Building Trades students constructed a one-story house on California Street.

There were many other new horizons for the members of CCHS. Among these were: five new faculty members, co-ed P.E., intramural Gymnastics, and the Belleville Computer Service which brought career and college information to students.

January's unusually warm weather turns students' thoughts toward spring.

Work offers new learning experiences for Tom Neal and other students at CCHS.

Driver's Education prepares students for the new responsibility of driving an automobile.

Mr. Emery, new to CCHS in 1979-80, fulfills his teaching responsibilities.

Scott Neckermann and John Freese face-off in co-ed P.E.

Juniors are excited about receiving their class rings.

Activities

During the 1979-80 school year themes went "Western." The Homecoming theme, "The Devils Went Down to Carterville" and the Stage Club's play, "Nashville Jamboree" suggested that the student body was in a country and western mood.

Students were presented with many opportunities to perform during the 1979-80 school year. The play, "Nashville Jamboree," the Variety Show, the musical "Oklahoma," the Christmas Concert, and the Spring Concert were some of the many performances in which students participated.

The Sweetheart Banquet held at Southern Illinois University was a new horizon for new members of FHA. A new horizon for the Junior Class was the presentation of the Prom entitled, "Wishing Upon a Star," which was held at John A. Logan College.

Graduation marked a new horizon for the Senior Class. It ended their high school life but marked the beginning of a new life filled with new educational goals, new career goals, and many other important decisions.

Registration Begins Year for Students of 1979-80

Melissa Masters, Julie Leeper, Jean Vogt, and Myschelle Taylor receive their keys from Laurie Weaver.

Alan Reed, Annetta Edwards, and Jimmy Kiefer receive insurance forms from Mrs. Appuhn and Pam Cuendet.

Connie Runge and Dodie Crabb fill out emergency cards.

During registration on August 21 and 22, students came in during the day to fill out various cards and forms. They anxiously wondered what their schedule was, wanted to know whether or not they would have friends in this or that class, and hoped their locker was on the second floor.

By the end of their registration, they had answers to these questions. Both days had their share of students' wishing that summer was not over; but it was, and the new school season was under way.

Stuffing napkins into chicken wire keeps the Seniors busy.

Hoedown Homecoming Comes to CCHS

This year Homecoming started off with a BANG! The theme was "The Devil Went Down to Carterville." Victory was in the air as the girls' softball team "galloped" over the Devils in an 8-5 win. All week students worked like "wranglers at branding time" on their floats. Thursday night officially began Homecoming. Julie Crabb was elected Queen with Jerrilyn Prichett as Maid of Honor. The rodeo was cancelled due to rain.

On Friday, cowboys and cowgirls "roamed" the halls of the school. Before the skit show began, games scheduled for the rodeo were played. The skit show and parade expressed the feelings of the "Lion Posse" that the Devils were "wanted" and were going to be "hanged" that night! At the game, the Lions "lassoed" and "branded" the Devils in a 26-8 "round-up!"

After the "showdown," everyone "gathered up" their hats, boots, jeans and "partners" and "mosied on down" to the Junior High for the dance. The "hoe-down" was provided with "foot-stomping" music from the WKSI Dancing Machine. Everyone was left in good spirits as the 1979 Homecoming "drifted off into the sunset!"

The Juniors work to complete the cloud.

Nashville Atmosphere Dominates Stage Club's Fall Play

This year the Stage Club presented "Nashville Jamboree" on November 18, 19, and 21. The play was about a small-town girl, Janie Conroy (Erin Stevens), wanting a part in the "Nashville Jamboree." During the many problems in auditioning, Janie met the star of the "Jamboree," Dick Rover (Eric McCluskey). Janie finally received a part in the show and fell in love with Dick.

Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Church directed the play. Mrs. Johnson served as the pianist. The student directors were Tim Gray and Julie Leeper. A band consisting of James Pritchett, David Helton, Mike Amble, John Allen, and Sue Speers provided some music for the play. Walt Bogard, Kendall Davis, Tim Gray, Pat Harris, Duane Doty, and Eric McCluskey were the stage crew. The make-up was applied by Becky Whitecotton, Jamie Jent, Jerrilyn Pritchett, Myschelle Taylor, Lisa Smith, and Julie Leeper. As in the past, the Stage Club took a trip to St. Louis with the proceeds from the play.

Concerts Ring in a Joyous Season

This year's Christmas season enjoyed two Christmas concerts. The first one was given December 9 by the Band and the Chorus. The next concert was given December 21 with the Band. The faculty also sang "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," and there was a special performance by Mr. Higgerson and Dr. Johnson who played "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

The Band played "The Christmas Song," "Sleigh Ride," and "Winter Wonderland." The Chorus sang "Alleluia," "The March of the Three Kings," and "We Wish You a Merry Christmas."

The faculty wishes the student body a very Merry Christmas.

Dr. Johnson delights everyone by playing his saxophone.

Sweetheart Banquet Is the Ladies' Choice

On the evening of Saturday, February 2, 1980, the FHA's annual Sweetheart Banquet was held. This was a dinner and a dance where the girls asked the boys out. The night began when dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. at the S.I.U. Student Center Ballrooms. After the meal, the Queen's Coronation took place. Myschelle Taylor was named as the 1980 Sweetheart Queen.

The dance began next. The music was provided by the WCIL Jam Van with Mike Chylewski and Kelly Carls as the disc jockeys. Couples danced until 12:00 a.m. when the Banquet came to an end.

'They're Playing Our Song' at the Variety Show

On March 17 and 18, the Stage Club presented Variety 1980. The theme this year was "They're Playing Our Song." The prizes were $25, $10, and $5 for first, second, and third places. Some of the skits included comedy acts, singing, disco dancing, instrumentals, and commercials. The first performance was given just to parents after a dinner was served. The last performance drew a sell-out crowd and was a huge success.

Other participants not pictured were Scott Rich, Greg Herrin, Mark Schlesinger, Robbie Stanley, Brad Drew, Rosina Pansing, Anita Stoner, Jay Meyer, John Merkin, Laurie Weaver, Audy Volner, Becky Whitecotton, Julie Crabb, David Helton, Jerri Harris, Crystal Spence, Erin Stevens, Ginger Watson, John Hancock, Jim E. Vaughn, Shane Watson, Iris McKenzie, Jim Reed, Kathy Reed, Curtis Runge, Darrell McDannel, Kim Johnson, Susan Barnett, Jamie Jent, Peggy Kovach, Bonnie Leeper, Tom Neal, Jim Bonner, Robyn Moore, and Amy Hunter.

The directors were Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Church. The piano was played by Mrs. Johnson, Erin Stevens, and Mari Lyn Jones. The drums were played by John Allen. The curtains and lights were operated by Duane Doty and Walter Bogard.

The Chorus presented Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" on April 23, 24, 25 and 26. The musical was directed by Mrs. Pappelis, and the orchestra was directed by Mr. Groll. This year was the first year the musical was double cast. The characters who were double cast were Curly (Larry Hunter and Eric McCluskey), Jud Fry (Eric Gerlock and Jay Meyer), Will Parker (Eric Gerlock and Larry Hunter) and Fred (Eric McCluskey and Jay Meyer).

The story revolved around the Box Social event. Laurey (Erin Stevens) could not decide with whom she wanted to spend the evening, Curly or Jud Fry. Ado Annie (Melody Gray) had to decide whether she wanted to marry Will Parker or her true love, Ali Hakim (John Merkin). Laurey fell in love and married Curly, and Ado Annie realized that she truly loved Will Parker.

Music Fills the Air at Spring Concert

The Carterville High School Band and Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Bruce Groll and Mrs. Zola Pappelis, presented their annual Spring Concert on May 4, 1980.

First on the agenda was the Chorus' singing "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" and "Oklahoma" from Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical "Oklahoma."

The Swing Choir sang "All of My Life" from the movie "Rocky II" and "When You're Loved."

For the finale, the Band performed "Torino," "Hits of the 20's," and "Jubilant Overture."

The song "All of My Life" from the movie "Rocky II" is sung by the Swing Choir during the concert.

Attention is turned to Eric McCluskey as he sings a solo from "Oklahoma."

Juniors Present 'Wish Upon a Star' for Prom

The Junior Class once again sponsored the annual Prom for the Seniors on May 10, 1980. The theme for this year's dance was "Wish Upon a Star." The Prom was held at John A. Logan College from 8:30 p.m.-12:30 a.m. in a starry decorated atmosphere. Crackerjack provided the music for dancing. The coronation began at 10:00 p.m. with Retiring King and Queen, Darrell McDannel and Julie Crabb, crowning a new royal couple, Steve Emery and Jamie Jent. Eric Gerlock served as the Master of Ceremonies.

After-prom was held at S.I. Bowl and Recreation Center from 1:30 a.m.-5:00 a.m. Students participated in bowling, pinball, and dancing. They also snacked on the refreshments that were available. Although the students left very tired, they still felt the excitement of Prom.

Honors Day Is Final All-School Activity

On May 21, 1980, at 10:00 a.m., the boys' gymnasium was packed with students waiting for the Honors Day ceremonies to begin. Honors Day, the last activity scheduled that all the student body would participate in during the 1979-80 school year, was held to honor students for their different services and to give the remaining sports awards.

Mr. Newton opened the program by announcing the Seniors who were recipients of scholarships: Erin Stevens (S.I.U. music), Sara Armstrong (Logan Foundation Directors Award), Jerrilyn Pritchett (S.I.U. music), Sue Speers (S.I.U. College of Human Resources), Cindy Stuck (S.E.M.O. athletics), Susan Jearlds (Business and Professional Women's Organization), and Melody Reeder (S.I.U. Alumni).

Mr. Newton then turned the program over to the athletic coaches. The Dutch Kanipe Award and the Jim Geisler Award were given to Basketball player Jim Bonner.

The Most Valuable Player Awards were given for the various sports. The recipients were as follows: Boys' Basketball — Kendall Davis, Baseball — Tim Bogard, Boys' Track — Jim Bonner, Football Lineman — Eric McCluskey, Football Back — John Hancock, Girls' Track — Julie Leeper, Volleyball — Crystal Spence, Girls' Basketball — Cindy Stuck, Softball — Barbie Drew, and Wrestling — Curtis Runge. Plaques were presented to Seniors who had lettered in a sport for two years.

Mrs. Pappelis presented the Swing Choir awards. She named Eric Gerlock as the Outstanding Musician. Mr. Groll recognized the Drill Team and Twirlers. He also presented awards to those he felt greatly helped the Band program: Jennifer Gerlock, Hattie Castanon, Krista Smith, Kelly Geiselman, Libby Gerlock, Erin Stevens, Doug Hatton, John Allen, and Suzanne Groll.

The Student Council was recognized by Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Zieba. Crystal Spence, president of the Student Council, gave Mrs. Zieba the Sponsor's Award. Mrs. Watson then gave awards to Senior members of the Library Club. Debbie Gentry and Susan Jearlds were named Outstanding Student Librarians.

The program was turned back over to Mr. Newton who gave certificates to Senior Guidance Center and Office workers. Certificates were given to students with perfect attendance. Rosina Pansing had had perfect attendance for six years. Medals were given to students' serving as class presidents.

Seniors Say Farewell at Senior Night and Senior Spectacular

The 1980 Seniors treated the rest of the student body by sponsoring and participating in a game, dance, and skit show.

Senior Night was held on April 11, 1980. The night began with the Senior girls' challenging the women faculty to a volleyball game with the Seniors' winning. Comedy skits and shooting free throws for cakes were activities between the games. The Senior boys then played a basketball game against the men faculty. This time the Seniors lost. After the games, a dance was held in the gym.

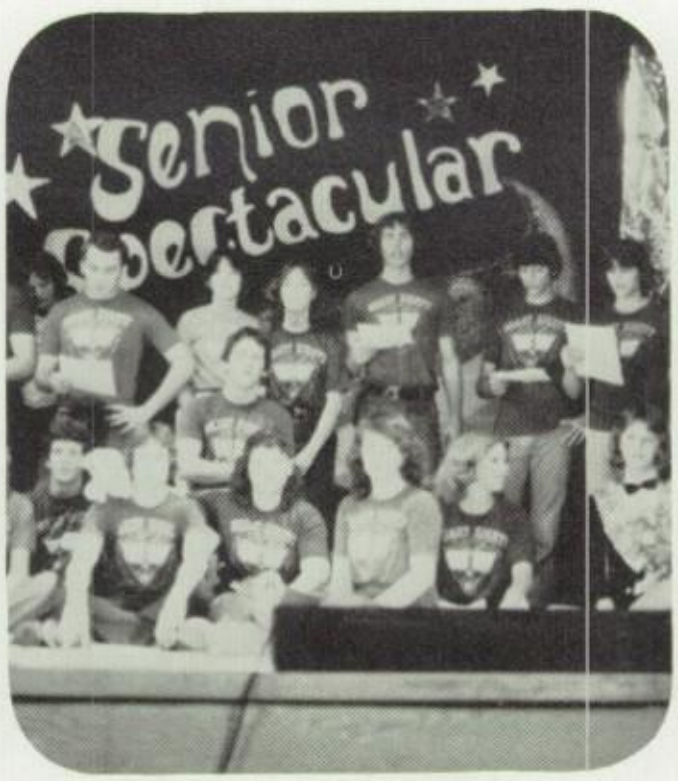
On May 20, 1980, the Seniors said farewell with their Senior Spectacular Show. The class presented many comedy skits mocking the activities at CCHS.

Kendall Davis and Mr. Crain struggle for the tip-off to begin the challenge between the Seniors and the faculty men.

Pat Harris displays his talent as a majorette between the games.

Mr. Mees and his date show their ability to disco at the dance.

Mr. Rogers (Scott Rich) feeds his goldfish to Henrietta Pussycat.



The Senior Spectacular ends with a tearful finale.

The Loud Family has one of their rare "quiet" conversations.

Rain Does Not Dampen Senior Spirit

After working hard by selling candy and having a raffle, the Class of '80 was able to make reservations for Opryland and for a dinner cruise on a river-boat down the Cumberland River.

On Saturday, May 17, the Seniors departed from the high school at 4:30 a.m. Even though a few people tried to sleep, there was much laughter. After stopping at McDonald's in Paducah for breakfast, they were greeted in Nashville, Tennessee, by pouring rain. The Class made a brave attempt to enjoy themselves in spite of the rain. Entertainment and food was provided on the boat.

Despite the weather, the Seniors had a super time on the trip and brought home numerous souvenirs and special memories.

Hats Fly at Graduation

"Is my hat on straight? Is the tassel on the correct side? When you go after your rose, will you get me one, too? Are we still going to throw our hats in the air? Eric, which door do we go in through?" These were a few of the questions Seniors were asking themselves as well as their classmates as they waited in great anticipation for the Graduation processional to begin on Thursday evening.

Baccalaureate was held on Monday, May 26, 1980, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gym. The processional and recessional were played by Mrs. Norma Johnson. Eric McCluskey gave the invocation. The Chorus with accompanist Mari Lyn Jones sang the selection "One God." The message was presented by Rev. Maitland. Rev. Roberts gave the benediction.

On Thursday, May 29, 1980, at 7:30 p.m. the Graduation processional "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the high school band began. The Seniors marched into the gym one at a time — boys in blue robes and girls in orange robes, each carrying an orange rose. The invocation was given Rev. Maitland. Renee Zedialis then presented the Salutatory Address. The Chorus sang the selection "If You Believe" accompanied by Mari Lyn Jones. Jerrilyn Pritchett delivered the Valedictory Address.

Mr. Newton gave class recognition to the members of Student Council, National Honor Society, Class Officers, Guidance Center and Office Workers and the top five ranking students. At that time, Eric McCluskey, Senior Class President, came forward and thanked the faculty and the Senior sponsors for their help and guidance. He and the other Senior officers gave pen sets to faculty members and flower arrangements to the Senior sponsors. The Senior sponsors presented Eric McCluskey with a Leadership Award for being an exceptionally outstanding class leader. He received a standing ovation from everyone attending the Commencement.

Roll was called by Mrs. Sheila Newcom, and diplomas were presented by Garford Gooden, President of the Board of Education. The school song was sung with the graduates throwing their Graduation caps into the air at the end of the song.

The Benediction was given by Rev. Maitland. The Band played the recessional "Pomp and Circumstance."

Sports

There were many different types of new horizons in the athletics program during the 1979-80 school year at CCHS. The Softball team started the year off by becoming co-champions in the Black Diamond Conference. As the year progressed, Mrs. Oliva predicted that volleyball would be a much faster and aggressive sport with more blocking, spiking, and net plays in the future.

Two of the boys' Basketball coaches were new during 1979-80. The new coaches were Mr. Lively, who coached Junior Varsity Basketball, and Mr. Bleyer, who coached Varsity Basketball. Gymnastics became intramural with students competing against each other within the school instead of against other schools. Mr. Kuntz predicted that wrestling would become free style making it quicker paced and more exciting.

As the year ended, girls' Track times, distances, and heights continued to increase getting even closer to boys' times, distances, and heights.

Freshman Football Wins 87 Percent

The 1979 Freshman team won 87 percent of their games with a record of 6 and 1. Coach Bleyer said, "The team worked really well together. I think some of them will be playing on the Varsity team next year."

One of their high-scoring games was against the Christopher Bearcats; they held Christopher to only one touchdown while scoring 30 points for themselves. One of the highlights of the year was an exciting victory over Johnston City, with the Lions winning by 2 hard-earned points.

JV Upsets Meridian by One Point

The Carterville Junior Varsity Basketball team had a year of "ups and downs." The team had a new coach, Mr. Steve Lively, and two new players, Simon Brown and Ed Wilkinson, that moved here in 1979. They beat Meridian in the middle of the season and went into a triple overtime against Zeigler-Royalton beating both by 1 point.

The young team had one of its "downs" by losing starter Kevin Howerton the early part of the season with a broken finger. The team had an overall 7-14 record.

Track had an important change in its format for distances. The IHSA officials changed the standard of measurement from yards to meters.

Three school records were broken. Kendall Davis ran the 880 in 2:07.45. The 3200 meter relay was broken at 1:41.37 by Kendall Davis, Mark Evans, Simon Brown, and Jeff Stuck. Joey Nauman, John Walker, Shane Watson, and Brad Weaver ran the Freshman 440 relay breaking both the school record and the Meet of Champs record.

To end the season, five members of the Track team attended the State Track Meet. Carterville was entered in four events with Jim Bonner entered in all four. Joey Nauman, John Cuendet, John Hancock, and Jim Bonner ran the 400 meter and 800 meter relays. For the 1600 meter relay, John Cuendet, Kendall Davis, John Hancock, and Jim Bonner competed. Jim Bonner also ran the 200 meter dash for Carterville.

This was the fifth straight year Carterville won the Black Diamond Conference, and it was John Hancock's fourth year at State. Coach Deck named Jim Bonner Most Valuable Player in recognition of the fact he qualified for four events at State.

Organizations

A "new look" was the new horizon for two of the organizations at Carterville High School during the 1979-80 school year. Band members started raising money in the spring of 1979 to purchase new band uniforms. They received their new orange and navy blue uniforms in time to wear them at the Christmas Concert. The flag corps made new uniforms out of blue satin.

FBLA joined with other organizations in Southern Illinois to help in WCIL's "Help Feed the Hungry" campaign. They held a dance with three cans admission per person or five cans per couple and went door-to-door collecting canned food. They collected over 1,000 cans which were distributed to the needy in the local area for Christmas.

A new horizon for the members of LIONITE was attending the Summer SISPA Conference held at Southern Illinois University on July 25 through 27.

As roller skating's popularity continued to rise across America, FHA, FBLA, and other organizations at CCHS participated in this activity.

One part music; one part director; four parts woodwinds and brass; dash of inspiration — mix together through rigorous practice, and the result is enjoyable music performed by Carterville's Marching and Concert Band.

The 1979-80 Carterville Band began the year with the marching season. They practiced, perfected, and presented halftime shows at all home Football games. They marched in five parades: the Cambria Labor Day Parade, the Free Fair Parade, the Apple Festival Parade, the Homecoming Parade, and SIU's Homecoming Parade. The Band kept busy during Basketball season by playing at all home Basketball games.

With marching season ending and concert season close at hand, the arrival of the Band's new uniforms was anxiously anticipated. The wait ended the first week of December. The new uniforms are navy with orange trim. They are a De Moulin design with original revisions made by the Band director, Mr. Bruce Groll. The Carterville Band's first opportunity to wear the new uniforms came with their annual Christmas Concert performance. Selections such as "Sleigh Ride," "Winter Wonderland," and "What Child Is This," were played.

On March 19 the Band with the assistance of the Carterville Lions Club held a pancake breakfast to raise money.

The Band worked diligently for two months practicing and perfecting three contest pieces: a march titled "Castle Gap", a comtemporary band overture titled "Jubilant Overture" and a transcription titled "Symphony in B Flat." Their work paid off in April when at contest they received high ratings from the judges.

Flag Corps Debuts in 1979

Drill Team looked flashy this year with new routines and new uniforms. To get their new uniforms, they organized can drives, car washes and bake sales. This was also the first year CCHS had a flag corps. Drill Team performed in parades and at basketball and football games.

This year's Majorettes were mostly Freshmen. They performed dance routines, hoop baton routines, and fire baton routines. To buy their new uniforms, boots, and batons, they raised money by having a shirt raffle, bottle drive, can drive, and craft book sale.

French Club Jesters Honor the Queen

French Club started the year by holding a treasure hunt in September. At the November meeting Anne-Sophia Colmant, an exchange student from Belgium at Marion High School, presented a program about the customs of her country.

In January, the French Club upheld an old French custom of serving cake with one bean inside. Debbie Hanagan became Bean Queen when she received the piece of cake with the bean. Her "jesters" then performed based on what stunts they drew out of an envelope.

In March French Club joined the Library Club for bowling at S.I. Bowl. In May, French Club members closed the year by attending the French Club Banquet.

FBLA Helps Feed the Hungry

FBLA meetings were held monthly with each having a theme. To follow their themes, they had debates, speeches, visual aids, and guest speakers. Their guest speakers included Kathy Needham and Kathy Hartman from McDonald's as well as Steve Coriasco from the Herrin Security Bank.

1979-80 was the first year that FBLA helped WCIL with their "Help Feed the Hungry" campaign by holding a canned food drive. It was also the first year for FBLA to have a skating party.

FBLA attended the State Leadership Conference on March 28 and 29. Seven members placed at the Conference: Jerri Harris and Pat Harris, first in Poster; Tim Gray, second in Public Speaking; Robyn Moore, ninth in Clerk Typing II; Melody Reeder, ninth in Miss FBLA; Mike Jennings, ninth in Mr. FBLA; and Laurie Woolard, tenth in Extemporaneous Speaking. The Carterville FBLA Club was fifth in membership size.

FHA Aids Special Olympics

FHA met monthly in the study hall to discuss club business, money-making projects for non-profit organizations, money-making projects for their club, and to plan activities.

In October and November FHA members went door to door selling "Tom Watt" novelty items to raise money to sponsor the Sweetheart Banquet. Also in the fall FHA members went door to door collecting and collected at intersections for the Special Olympics.

In December members met in the study hall to exchange Christmas gifts. Then they went skating with the FBLA members.

On February 2, 1980, FHA sponsored the Sweetheart Banquet. It was held in Ballrooms C and D in the Student Center at Southern Illinois University. On May 3, 1980, FHA members ended the year by attending Six Flags over Mid-America.

Library Club Becomes Media Club

1980 was a year filled with many events for the Library Club. September was a month of organization with the appointment of committees, the election of officers, and the planning of the year's activities. Members attended the fall conference of Little Egypt Student Media Association at SIU. In November the Library Club sponsored the annual Book Fair.

An executive meeting of officers and Constitution Revision Committee members was held in January to revise the constitution and by-laws. Members voted in favor of changing the name of their club to the Media Club. Also in January, Media Club held its first money-making project: selling popcorn.

Media Club joined French Club for bowling in March. In April a "bring in pizza" party was held in the library to conduct the spring cleaning. Media Club ended the year by holding an awards picnic in May.

LIONITE Begins 1980 Yearbook in 1979

LIONITE members and their sponsor started the 1980 yearbook in May, 1979. They decided on the cover and endsheets the last week of the 1979 school year. Later in July members attended the SISPA Workshop at SIU, and in August the LIONITE staff collected ads in Carterville, Marion, Herrin, and Carbondale. In September, the CCHS students received their 1979 yearbooks and signed autographs on the front lawn.

The LIONITE staff worked at concession stands, sold pictures, and sold candy to raise money to support the yearbook.

NHS Selects Two to Apply for Scholarship

The students in National Honor Society were selected by members of the faculty. They were selected on their scholastic ability, leadership, character and service. The new members were tapped during the school day. They were initiated in May before the Honors Banquet. To be accepted, one had to have a cumulative grade point average of 4.50 by the Sophomore year, 4.25 by the Junior year, and 4.00 by the Senior year.

This year the NHS national office offered 225 $1000 scholarships across the nation. Students were judged on their activities, leadership and character. On January 31, 1980, the NHS members reviewed all Senior members' records. They chose Mike Jennings and Jerrilyn Pritchett to apply for the scholarship. All participants across the United States received an Honorable Mention.

Students Volunteer Services

Students donated their time to help Mr. Newton, Mrs. Sparks, and Mrs. Appuhn. They helped by picking up absentee slips, answering the phone, filing, taking messages to other students, duplicating, collating, running errands, sorting mail, etc.

'Sphinx' Expands to 8 Pages Twice

The "Sphinx" newspaper staff had a very busy year. Their reporters researched a wide range of subjects, and twice the newspaper was expanded to 8 pages from its normal 6-page length. Six issues were released, and the last issue was dedicated to the Seniors — telling about their plans for the future and their class will.

Members of the staff attended the fall, 1979, SISPA Conference and the spring, 1980, SISPA Conference. The newspaper and individual articles were entered in the SISPA writing contests. Rodney Bonner won an Honorable Mention in the Cub Division, and Cindy Thierry won an Honorable Mention in Editorials.

Student Council Rewrites Constitution

Student Council felt this year that the Council's constitution needed to be evaluated and revised. One of the changes was that in the future the Homecoming queen will be required to graduate from the high school to be able to reign and represent herself as retiring queen.

Every year Student Council sponsors Homecoming activities including the parade, dance, bonfire and the skits. Everything went smoothly this year with the exception of the bonfire and the skits, which were rained out the night of the coronation; however, the skits were held at the pep session the day of the game.

With all the activities that the Council planned, it had to have money. It received some of its money through money-raising activities such as selling cowboy hats at Homecoming. They also had a booth at the Free Fair which was a teddy bear ring toss stand. Another one of their money-making projects was a bake sale.

During the Christmas season, they sponsored the Door Decorating Contest. The Guidance Center received the grand prize, first floor prize went to the girls' gym, second floor prize was the library, and third floor prize went to Mrs. Robinson's room.

The Student Council had 15 members, of which only 2 were boys. With the shortage of manpower on the Council, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Zieba appreciated Eric McCluskey, Tim Gray, and Larry Hunter for volunteering their time for the Student Council.

Classes

Each class, from Freshman to Senior, was filled with many new horizons during the 1979-80 school year. Students entering Carterville High School as Freshmen were faced with new classes, new organizations, new sports, new freedoms and many new faces. One new horizon which affected many Sophomore students was driver's education. Juniors placed their orders for class rings in the fall enabling them to receive the rings before Christmas.

The realization that they were attending their last year of high school came to many Seniors as they planned their Senior trip, ordered graduation invitations, and made college and career plans.

Work played an important part in the lives of many high school students. A survey taken by the Guidance Center revealed that 65 percent of the Senior Class worked, 36 percent of the Junior class worked, 19 percent of the Sophomore Class worked, and 22 percent of the Freshman Class worked.

In the fall of 1976, the Seniors began their high school journey. They elected Crystal Spence for their president. Their first project was to build a Homecoming float. They built a falcon entitled, "Dream on Falcons for the Lions are Going to Knock You Silly." They did not win, but they were proud of the float. In April, they had a car wash to balance their budget. By May, the Seniors found out what high school was like and looked forward to a wonderful Sophomore year.

In August of 1977, the Seniors assembled in the gym to start a new year with a new principal. This was the first year Eric McCluskey was elected president, and he was president from then on. Also, this was the year that the Seniors began their biggest money-making project of the past three years — CANDY. They ended the year by "hassling" the Secretary of State for their licenses.

As Juniors, the year began with the usual fever that accompanies all upperclassmen. This was the year for them to produce Prom. The theme was "Over the Rainbow." After Prom, there was so much food left that they had a party at Giant City Park. At the end of this year, all were waiting for their last year to start.

In 1979, the Seniors started their last year. In this year, they tried to fit in the activities their time would allow. One activity was a play called "Nashville Jamboree." Though many were still trying to cram in all they could, time ran out. The spring came, and they took their Senior trip. They went to Nashville and had a good time. The time grew nearer for the Seniors to leave. Looking back, they would have fond memories of their school years. Leaving this school and all the memories was hard, but they looked forward to the future.

The Junior Class started off the excitement of a new year by ordering their class rings in September. This enabled them to receive the rings in December.

October brought the Homecoming activities in which many Juniors participated. The Junior class received fourth in the float competition with their float entitled, "No Devils in St. Lion's Carterville."

In October Juniors sold apples to students and faculty members at lunch time. In November the Juniors sold spice sets; and in December they sold Milk Chocolate Bars, Turtles, and Milk Duds to raise more money to help produce Prom.

In December the Junior Class formed a Prom committee which started planning and making arrangements for Prom. Prom was held on May 10, 1980, at John A. Logan College. The theme was "Wish Upon a Star," and a band provided entertainment. Afterprom was held at Coo-Coo's.

Donna Malone staples papers in the Guidance Center.

This year the Sophomore Class started the year by winning first place with their Homecoming float entitled "Devils Bow Your Heads." The students met at Dana Anderson's house at night and on weekends until they perfected the float. It featured a Lion (Leann Young) sitting on a throne facing a goal post with a Devil (Rose Mary Clendenin) bowing down to the Lion holding a golden football. The huge sign that was on the back of the float went in the boys' gym.

Sophomore students worked very hard at the football and basketball concession stands to raise money for their class.

The students also sold plastic laminated posters in October. Since there was such a great demand for more posters, they sold more in November. They also sold porcelain bells and candle holders.

Later in the spring, they sold candy to help raise money for their Junior-Senior Prom and for their Senior trip.

Freshmen Find Challenges at CCHS

Christy Dixon works on a poster for the multiple sclerosis drive in March.

Aretha Gentry stamps cards in the library.

On August 19, 1979, a new group of Freshmen entered Carterville Community High School and found many challenges facing them. Some of the challenges included: new activities, new responsibilities, and new classes. The new classes were to these Freshmen the greatest challenges. In a random survey of Freshmen students, they chose Algebra as their hardest subject. Science seemed to run a close second.

Freshmen found excitement and adventure both in the festivities and preparation for Homecoming. Their third place float, constructed at Mrs. Janes' house, was entitled "String Up the Devils." The float was highlighted by a giant fiddle.

During the year, the Freshmen sold buttons and decals to raise money for their class.

Although the challenges and hardships were many, the class soon adjusted to high school life; and it was an exciting and rewarding year for them.

Students Boost Each Other

Rodney Bonner and Diana Whiting fill out requests for the Belleville computer.

Students at CCHS participated in many organizations, class projects, and other activities to express their individual interests. They also united to participate in outside social activities such as skating, dancing, and community and national interest projects. This included collecting for non-profit organizations and tying yellow ribbons on trees for the U.S. hostages held in Iran.

Bruce Harvel ties a yellow ribbon for the U.S. hostages being held in Iran.

Roxanne Harris, Kathy Crowell and Betty Noakes enjoy skating.

Many high school students like dancing at the local disco.

Chorus members sing Christmas carols to the Office personnel.

Faculty

The faculty at CCHS added five new members during the 1979-80 school year. The new teachers were: Mrs. Wylde who taught English, Mr. Emery who taught business, Mr. Lively who taught driver's education, Mrs. Pappelis who taught chorus, and Mr. Cluck who taught CVE and shop.

The Cooperative Vocational Education program was new this year. Students spent an hour in class learning how to get a job and how to deal with people they encountered while doing that job. Students attended a certain number of hours of classes and then they went to work. A job was required to take CVE. CVE was seen as the last step in a vocational course sequence. Two other new classes offered in 1979-80 were Carterville building trades and co-educational P.E.

Another new horizon was the use of the Belleville Computer Service which enabled students to request college and career information.

Administrators Look Into the Future

Mr. Dawson and Mr. Cuendet foresee several changes in the coming decade as far as the High School is concerned.

They hope to expand the forensic programs and widen the field of vocational education. This would be offered through advanced vocational classes at John A. Logan College.

They also foresee several problems at CCHS. One is trying to maintain the High School building in good structural shape. The other one is seeing that the building meets federal regulations.

Mr. Armstrong, Athletic Director at the High School, sees no changes but commented that the High School has a very extensive sports program for this size school.

Office Staff Sees Changes Ahead at CCHS

Mrs. Sparks puts the finishing touches on her Christmas table in the Office.

Mr. Newton announces Prom candidates.

Upon entering a new decade, Mr. Newton was asked what new changes he expected at CCHS. He said he hopes to see in the future a pre-algebra class and a new type of student registration where the students can choose what hours they want their classes.

Mr. Newton feels the most enjoyable part of his job is being able to recognize students who excel in either academics or sports. However, the part of the job he dislikes is having to discipline students.

When asked what new changes she'll be making, Mrs. Sparks said she didn't expect many. She replied, "I'll still be counting money."

Carterville Support Staff Expects Few Revisions

CUSTODIANS: John Watson, Bill Corley, William McNeill.

Mr. Corley cleans after school.

COOKS: Zenobia Fike, Maxine Howell.

Of all the support staff, the cooks are the most optimistic about the future. They hope to see a lowering of the ceiling in the cafeteria and a faster method used in the purchasing of food.

The custodians feel their jobs will not change much — "the same old dirt being brought in by new people."

Mrs. Brenda Bratcher

Mrs. Bratcher and Mr. Kuntz are the teachers in the MATH DEPARTMENT. Mrs. Bratcher teaches Math IV, Algebra I and II, and Geometry. She is involved in the National Honor Society, is one of the Freshman Class sponsors, and works with Math Field Day and the JETS test.

Mr. Kuntz teaches Algebra I. He also teaches Math I and II. He is the Wrestling coach and assistant Football coach. Mr. Kuntz is one of the Junior Class sponsors.

Mr. Lee Kuntz

Mrs. Conni Church

Mrs. Sheri Hunter

Mrs. Nancy Wylde

The teachers of the ENGLISH DEPARTMENT are Mrs. Church, Mrs. Hunter, and Mrs. Wylde.

Mrs. Church teaches English I and III, Speech I and II, and Novels.

Mrs. Hunter teaches English III, College English, Practical English, Humanities, English Literature, and Illinois History. Both Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Church are Junior Class sponsors, and both are involved with the production of the school's Junior-Senior play and the Variety Show.

Mrs. Wylde is a new teacher to the Carterville English Department. She teaches English I, II and III, along with Practical English. Mrs. Wylde is also a Sophomore Class sponsor.

Several students in Mrs. Hunter's English classes wrote, for extra credit, essays on the subject "Man of the Year." It was a response to Time magazine's choice of the Ayatollah Khomeini. The students gave their own choices. An article appeared on January 21, 1980, in the "Southern Illinoisan" on the students and their essays.

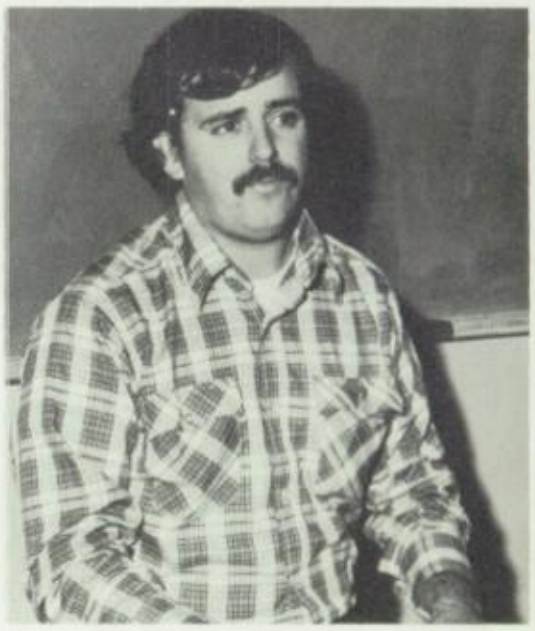
Dr. George Johnson

The teachers of the SCIENCE DEPARTMENT are Dr. Johnson and Mr. Kemp.

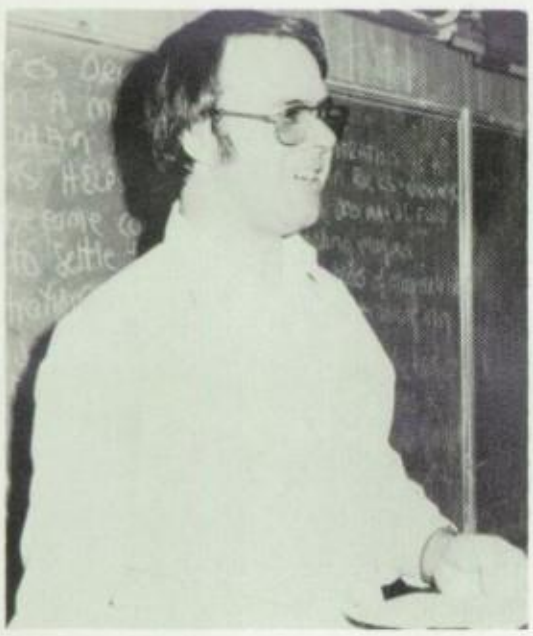
Dr. Johnson teaches Physical Science, Chemistry, and Physics. He is a Senior Class sponsor. He is also involved with the JETS test.

Mr. Kemp teaches Physical Science and Biology I and II. He is a Sophomore Class sponsor. He also coaches the Girls' Softball and Basketball teams.

A highlight of Biology II was a trip to SIU to view the cadavers.



Mr. Ray Kemp



Mr. John Halldorson

Mr. Steve Higgerson

Mrs. Marlene Robinson

The teachers of the SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT are Mr. Halldorson, Mrs. Robinson, and Mr. Higgerson.

Mr. Halldorson teaches Psychology, Earth Science, and Geography. He is a Sophomore Class sponsor.

Mrs. Robinson teaches American History, Government, and National Issues. She is also a Sophomore Class sponsor.

Mr. Higgerson teaches World History along with American History.

John Hancock and Eric McCluskey dissect the fetal pig in Biology II.

Mr. Frank Cluck

The people who head the INDUSTRIAL ARTS DEPARTMENT are Mr. Marrs and Mr. Cluck.

Mr. Marrs teaches Shop I and Drafting I. He also teaches Building Trades, which is a new class that has been added to the curriculum. In this class students build a home to be sold. He is also a Senior Class sponsor.

Mr. Cluck, a new teacher at Carterville, teaches Drafting I, Shop I, Carpentry, and CVE. Mr. Cluck is a Freshman Class sponsor.

Mr. Robert Marrs

Mr. Gary Emery

Mrs. Sheila Newcom

Mrs. Newcom and Mr. Emery are the teachers in the BUSINESS DEPARTMENT. Mrs. Newcom teaches Typing I and II, Shorthand, and Secretarial and Office Practice. She is an FBLA sponsor, is involved in the National Honor Society, and is a Senior Class sponsor.

Mr. Emery is a new teacher at Carterville. He teaches Introduction to Business, Accounting, Consumer Education, Personal Typing, and Typing I. Mr. Emery is also involved in FBLA and is a Senior Class sponsor.

Mrs. Charlene Zieba

Mrs. Zieba is the teacher in the HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT. She teaches Home Economics I and II, Cooking, and Child Care. She is the sponsor of the Future Homemakers of America Club and is involved with Student Council. Mrs. Zieba is the coordinator of the Honors Banquet and Sweetheart Banquet. This year she also coordinated the North Central Dinner.

Mr. Mike Deck

The PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT consists of Mrs. Oliva and Mr. Deck. Mrs. Oliva teaches Physical Education and Health. She is the Gymnastics, Girls' Track, and Volleyball coach as well as a Senior Class sponsor.

Besides teaching Physical Education and Health, Mr. Deck is the Football and Boys' Track coach.

Co-ed P.E. classes were held in the girls' gym while the big gym was being repaired. Examples of the games the students participated in were softball, speedball, and volleyball.

Mrs. Kathy Oliva

Mrs. Catherine Ziegler

Mrs. Ziegler heads the FRENCH DEPARTMENT. She teaches French I, II, III, and IV. She also teaches English II. Mrs. Ziegler is the sponsor of the French Club and is a Freshman Class sponsor.

The classes of French I, II, and III deal with learning the basics of the French language. French IV is an in-depth study of the French language.

Mr. Bruce Groll

Mr. Groll and Mrs. Pappelis are the teachers of Carterville's MUSIC DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Groll directs the High School Concert Band, the Marching Band, the Junior High Band, and teaches beginning musicians at Carterville, Crainville and Cambria. On his own time, Mr. Groll plays in his own band.

Mrs. Pappelis directed the musical "Oklahoma"; and under her supervision, the Chorus went to the State solo/ensemble contest, where many received first superior ratings.

Mrs. Zola Pappelis

Mrs. Susan Appuhn

Mrs. Appuhn is the Guidance Counselor at Carterville. Her role includes providing almost any type of information to students, conducting follow-up surveys of former students, coordinating job placement services, offering counseling services, keeping student records, and conducting student tests including college preparatory tests. Mrs. Appuhn also puts in many hours as the sponsor for Carterville's yearbook.

Mrs. Samuel is the head of the ART DEPARTMENT. She teaches Art I, II, III, and IV, and Crafts. Mrs. Samuel is the coordinator of the school's annual art exhibits held at both the High School and the Junior High.

Other art shows that students participated in were the Du Quoin State Fair, the Mt. Vernon Art Guild Show, the John A. Logan Art Guild Show, the Scholastic Art Awards held in Mt. Vernon, the John A. Logan Art Show, the University Mall Art Show, and the Annual Midwestern States Art Exhibit in Evansville, Indiana.

Mrs. Marie Samuel

Barbara Hudson, Bill Reed, Bob Yack, and Laura Kovach are winners of Scholastic Art Awards from an exhibition that occurred from February 9 to March 9, 1979. Their work was displayed at the Mitchell Museum at Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Steve Lively

The DRIVER'S EDUCATION DEPARTMENT has a new instructor this year. He sponsors the Junior Class and is assistant Basketball and Track coach.

The behind-the-wheel phase of the course was delayed three days this fall as a result of a mishap that occurred when the original Driver's Education car rolled down the hill from the teachers' parking area and hit a tree.

A new car was ordered and arrived on November 8.

Miss Linda Triest

Miss Triest is the Title I Program teacher at Carterville High School. Title I deals with the students who have problems in their classes caused by an inability to read the classroom materials. The program works to improve the study habits and the reading skills of students. Miss Triest also works with the attendance records. She is the sponsor of the "Sphinx" school newspaper.

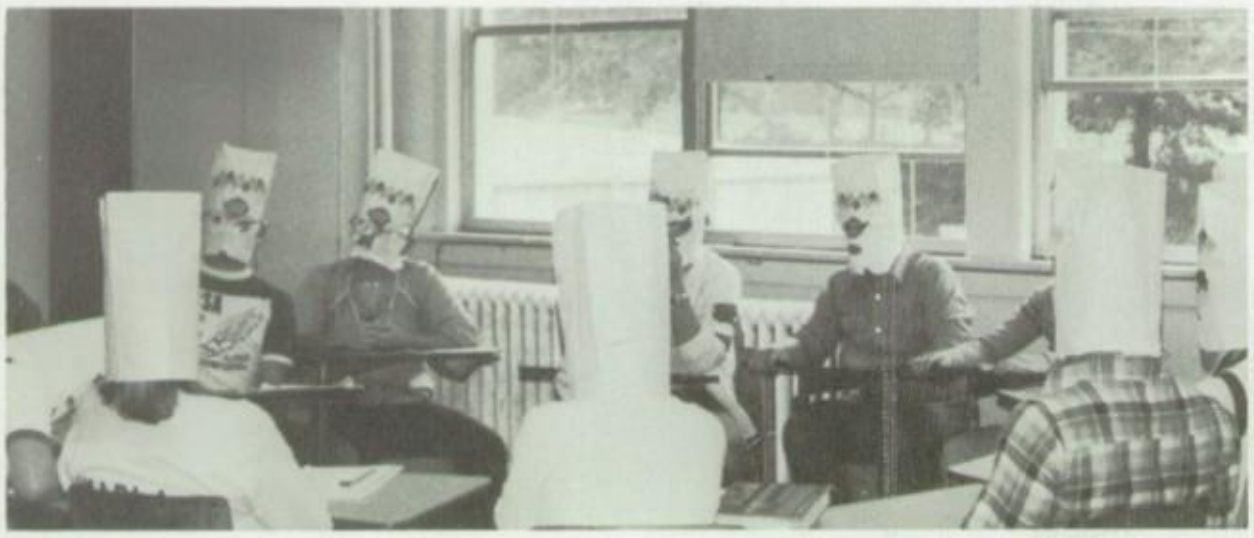
Mrs. Josie Kirk

At Carterville High School the two women who are in charge of the library are Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Kirk. They are the librarian and library aide, respectively. Mrs. Watson is the sponsor of the Media Club and is involved in Student Council.

Many new changes were added to the library in 1979-80. One of these was a new sound filmstrip projector, which allows students to study careers or any subject that is in the filmstrip library.

Mrs. Shirley Watson



Speech I transforms into the "DQ Klan" as they discuss parliamentary procedure.

Mrs. Zieba diapers Darla Allen's daughter Angela in the Child Care class.

The Guidance Center takes Grand Prize in the Christmas Door Contest.

Mrs. Vicki Gualdoni was the high school Chorus teacher until Thanksgiving. She directed such musicals as "Hello Dolly" and "The Sound of Music." She left for Washington, D.C., on November 21, 1979, to become a secretary for the FBI.

Advertising

The members of the LIONITE staff would like to express their sincere appreciation to their advertisers, boosters, and other contributors to the LIONITE. LIONITE received a large number of ads during the 1979-80 school year ranging from restaurants to trophy shops.

Members of the LIONITE staff faced a new horizon in the summer of 1979 by starting to sell advertisements in early August. They went door-to-door, made phone calls, and wrote letters to businesses in the surrounding area. Businesses were given two price lists. If they paid on first contact the ad prices were $5 cheaper than if they wished to be billed and pay within 30 days. The reason for this price difference was due to the fact that if LIONITE paid their publishing company before set deadlines, the total price paid would be less.

Advertisements paid for approximately 66% of the cost of production of the yearbook. Without these people behind the LIONITE, there would be no LIONITE.

Lord of the far horizons,
Give us the eyes to see
Over the verge of sundown
The beauty that is to be.
Give us the skill to fashion
The task of Thy command,
Eager to follow the pattern
We may not understand.

Master of ancient wisdom
And the lore lost long ago,
Inspire our foolish reason
With faith to seek and know.
When the skein of truth is tangled,
And the lead of sense is blind,
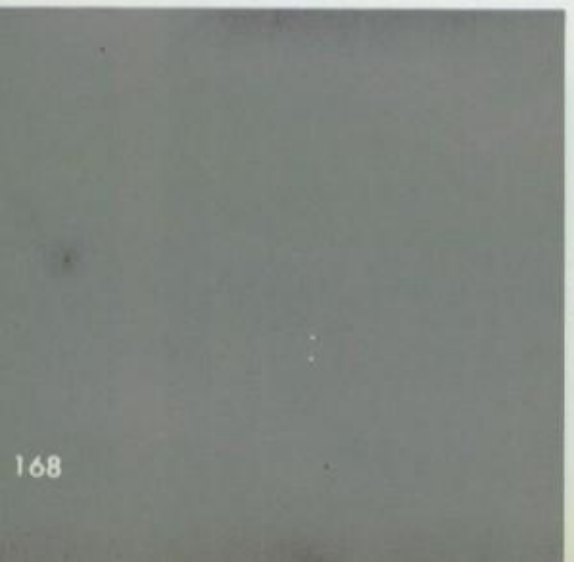
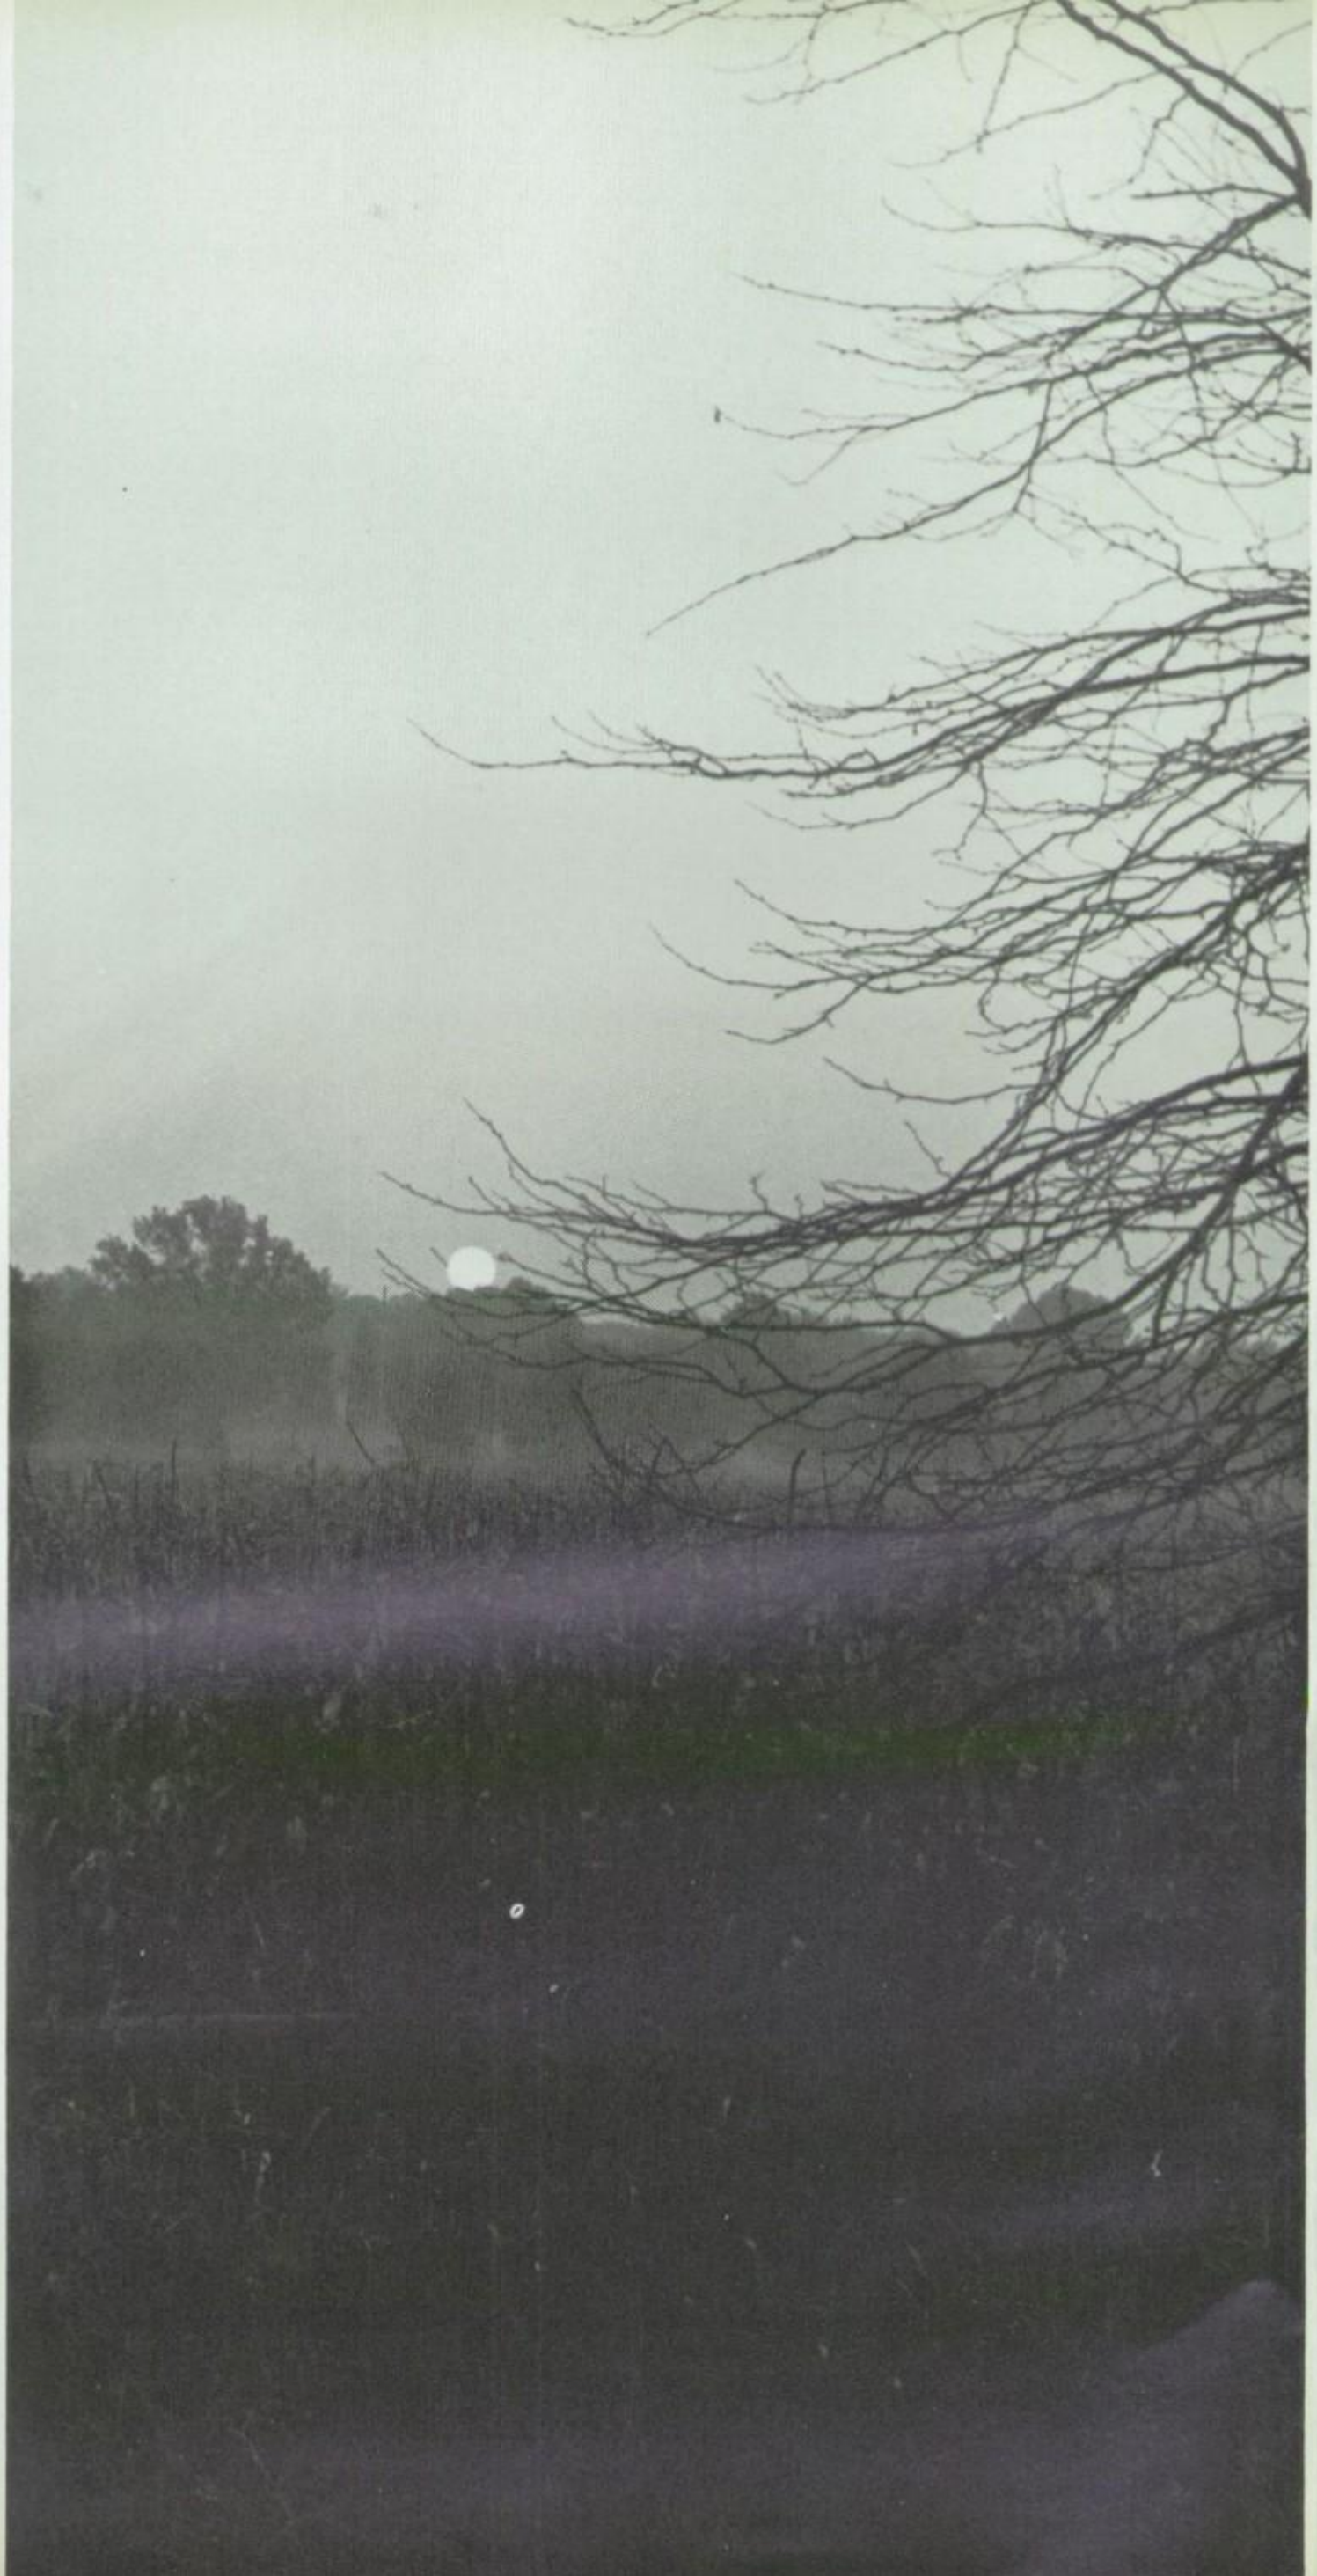
Foster the fire to lighten
Our unillumined mind.





1980
